

GOOD NEWS!

FEBRUARY 7, 2021 FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B)

Jb 7:1-4, 6-7 / 1 Cor 9:16-19, 22-23 / Mk 1:29-39

This harsh bit of advice is more military than religious. However, it does carry some truth. There are times when there is no way to avoid hardship, so all we can do is find some way of dealing with it. This is the situation in today's reading from Job. He experiences life as burdensome. To make matters worse, life is too short to be able to get beyond the difficulty. So what does he do? What might most of us do in similar situations? Complain.

There is really nothing wrong with complaining. The problem is to whom and for how long. A large number of the psalms are complaints or, to use the theological term, laments. To complain to God can be a profound prayer, for it admits our human inability to fix everything. And, it presumes that God can and just might fix the problem. The psalm response continues this train of thought with a prayer of confidence that God will fix it. The Gospel reading then provides examples of how Jesus did just that.

These are not merely stories of past events. Rather, they trace a profound yet difficult-to-accept religious belief: when we are overwhelmed by hardship, we should turn to God and place our need in God's care, believing that God wants what is best for us. Perhaps the rest is out of our hands, but we must believe that we are in God's hands and, therefore, safe.

Dear Padre

Does the Church promote adoption as a response to infertility? If so, why?

The Church indeed promotes adoption, but not solely as a response to infertility. Church teaching presents adoption as an alternative way that a couple might direct their generosity and desire to be life-giving through children. While recognizing the suffering of infertility, the Church also sees the great need of children throughout the world who, for one reason or another, haven't been able to live with their biological parents.

The call to adopt and care for children in need, however, is addressed to all believers who are able to help. The theological foundation for reaching out to adopt children is linked to our being brothers and sisters in Christ, and that we are called to be stewards of the lives of one another. In some instances, people feel called to care for needy children of the world by adopting them and bringing them into a new family to develop and grow.

In other situations, perhaps Christians could show extraordinary love by "adopting" a child or a family of children by supporting them in their own country through assistance to relatives who could not otherwise look after the child. This is obviously not like raising a child in your own home, but think of what it might do for a child in his own home country. A key principle that should underlie the care of orphans is "what is best for the child."

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

St. Paul in our second readings today reminds us: “If I preach the gospel, this is no reason for me to boast, for an obligation has been imposed on me, and woe to me if I do not preach it!” It is our obligation to share the good news of Jesus with others. We can’t keep it or hoard it for ourselves – we have to share it. As we prepare to begin the Lenten season in another week, perhaps we can “equip” ourselves to share the Gospel by joining our weekly Faith Discussions called “The Search” on Wednesday evenings at 6:30 pm at St. Catherine. The link to join virtually is available on our parish website. It will also be sent out via Evangelus Wednesday afternoon each week.

February 17th is Ash Wednesday when we begin our yearly observance of the Holy Fast of Lent. You may be wondering how we will distribute ashes this year during the pandemic. The Vatican has given us the instructions that the ashes are to be sprinkled on each person’s head silently (rather than making the sign of the cross on the forehead like we’re used to). Actually the sprinkling of the ashes on the head is the common way it is done in Europe – we’re just following their custom this year. Ash Wednesday tends to be one of the most popular days of the year. I invite you to consider inviting and bringing a friend to one of the Masses or Services this year.

Here is the Ash Wednesday Schedule (February 17) so you can plan ahead:

- 9 AM - Mass at St. Gabriel, Black River
- 12 PM Noon – Liturgy of the Word with the distribution of ashes at St. Anne, Harrisville
- 4:30 PM – Liturgy of the Word with the distribution of ashes at St. Raphael, Mikado
- 5 PM – Adoration and Confessions at St. Catherine, Ossineke
- 6:30 PM – Mass at St. Catherine, Ossineke

This weekend for Mass please welcome Fr. Ron Timock and Fr. Joe Muszkiewicz as celebrants. I will be away for my annual siblings’ weekend. We started the tradition last year by renting an AirBnb and spending the weekend with my sisters and their families. It should be fun and relaxing. See you next weekend!

Saint of the Week- Saint Josephine Bakhita-Feast Day February 8

St. Josephine Bakhita was born in Sudan in 1869 and enslaved as a child. Eventually she was sold to an Italian diplomat and taken to Italy, where she was later brought to freedom through the help of the Canossian Daughters of Charity. Through their guidance, she learned about God and served him faithfully until her death in 1947.

Today, the feast day for St. Josephine Bakhita—February 8—is recognized as the annual day of prayer and awareness against human trafficking. Through prayer, we not only reflect on the experiences of those that have suffered through this affront to human dignity but also comfort, strengthen, and help empower survivors.

Our Sick: May God shower his love and care upon you, comfort you and encourage you, heal you in body, soul, and spirit and bring you to peace.
